British Pilots Will Race For Schneider Cup

World Speed Plane Trophy Stays Another Year In Great Britain

French and Italian Teams Drop Out of Contest Set for September 12; British Pilots Will Race Against Each Other to Their Own Record of 328.6 Miles An Hour

London, Sept. 4.—French and Italian teams will not compete in the Schneider Cup air race, which was scheduled for September 12, it was officially stated to-night. British pilots will carry out the arranged programme, racing against one another in an attempt to beat the existing air speed record.

The record for the Schneider trophy races, the classic of aviation, is 328.6 miles an hour, attained by Flight-Lieutenant Wagborn, who won the race for Britain two years ago. For a time to-day it was thought in London Italy and France, despite their request yesterday for a postponement and the statement of the Royal Aero Club the rules would not permit it, would enter the contest September 12. Both nominated their pilots, but the announcement they would not race came later.

It was learned yesterday that two British planes, powered with Rolls-Royce engines had reached in practice a speed of 405 miles an hour. This is a rate of more than 6.7 miles a minute.

200 Are Drowned In River Floods In Porto Rico

Much Property Destroyed By Storm; Deluge of Rain on Island

Thirty Bodies Recovered; Search to Be Made as Rivers Fall

Associated Press
San Juan, Porto Rico, Sept. 4.—The bodies of 200 persons, drowned when rivers, swelled by a down-pour of rain, overflowed their banks at Ponce, were sought by police and national guards to-day.

The flood, attributed in part to a big storm sweeping across the West Indies, destroyed a great deal of property, carrying many houses and huts along the Portuguese and Spanish rivers into the Caribbean Sea. In twenty-four hours 3.28 inches of rain fell.

Thirty bodies had been found this morning. It was still impossible to cross the Portuguese River, scene of the principal washout, and it was believed many dead would be found on that side.

LOS ANGELES IS CELEBRATING

Los Angeles, Sept. 4.—One hundred and fifty years ago eleven families, led by General Felipe de Neve of Seville, Spain, founded a small Pueblo of adobe houses.

To-day, 1,250,000 people began celebration of that event, which was the founding of the City of Los Angeles. The booming of navy guns on ships in Los Angeles Harbor, located twenty odd miles from the metropolitan district, signalled the opening of a ten-day fiesta.

FIRE DESTROYS LAUNCH AT SEA

Dudley Seymour Escaped in Dinghy When Vessel Burned Off Russell Island

Granges, Sept. 4.—Dudley Seymour barely escaped with his life yesterday afternoon when his Columbia River boat was destroyed by fire off Russell Island. He just had time to leap into the dinghy and cast loose after his vessel took fire from an engine back-fire, while travelling from Fulford Harbor to Sidney.

Mr. Seymour made his home on his boat and all his clothing and other possessions were destroyed. Insurance carried amounted to about one-third of the loss.

MINISTER SAYS CANADA HAS 530,000 JOBLESS

No Fewer Than 150,000 Saskatchewan Farmers on Relief List, States Robertson

Registration Carried Out in B.C. Shows 38,800 Persons Unemployed

Ottawa, Sept. 4.—Canada's unemployed exceed 530,000, according to Senator G. D. Robertson, Minister of Labor.

The minister to-day issued figures compiled by provincial governments. In the majority of provinces the totals are based on registration, and in the others careful estimates have been made. All the provinces are covered in the figures the minister gave out.

Senator Robertson said these figures would probably be swelled in the winter months when seasonal unemployment would become an increasing factor in the situation.

By provinces, figures of unemployed are as follows:
British Columbia, 38,880; Alberta, 15,450; Saskatchewan, cities and towns, 26,904, and drought areas, 150,000; Manitoba, 41,489; Ontario, 130,000; Prince Edward Island, 1,500; Quebec, 100,000; Nova Scotia, 18,000; New Brunswick, 8,000.

Saskatchewan is hardest hit of all the provinces. Registration in urban centres indicates 26,904 are without work, while in those areas where crops have failed there are seventy-six municipalities where 100 per cent relief will be necessary. Hon. Robert Weir, Minister of Agriculture, who returned to-day from the prairies, estimates at 150,000 the number of those requiring relief in the drought areas of Saskatchewan.

While the other prairie provinces do not face such a grave situation as that of Saskatchewan, figures show it is sufficiently serious. In Manitoba, where there are 41,489 unemployed, approximately 28,000 are married men, 10,000 single men and nearly 4,000 single women. Alberta has 15,450 unemployed, of whom roughly 9,000 are married and 6,000 single.

Children Do Not Have To Cross Streets In Going To School In Model Town

Town planners, landscapers, architects and engineers from all over the North American continent and even in Europe, have become interested in Radburn—the town for the Motor Age—a model town which is being built near New York City. Every front garden is landscaped in Radburn and no child has to cross a street on its way to school. How this wonder community was evolved and developed is told in to-morrow's supplement of The Victoria Daily Times.

Twenty-two major rackets in New York prey upon almost every citizen from skyscraper building to the peddling of vegetables to the tune of $100,000,000 annually. Broadway's night life is prey of the biggest rackets with 32,000 speakeasies and an army of bootleggers—all thriving.

Other features in to-morrow's Magazine Section will include:
"The Green Pastures," remarkable play which has grossed a fortune and which will go on tour after making its bow to Broadway.
James Hogg, the Ettrick Shepherd, by Robert Connell.

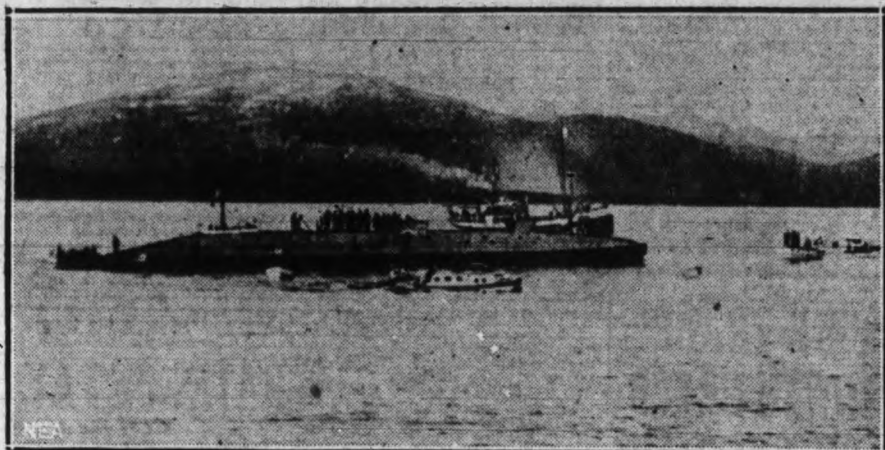

Vancouver Island's Bonnie Heather.
Bulgaria takes lesson from ancient Egypt and conscripts the youth of the nation for work.

Debonair rebel leaders of Cuba conduct activities from costly suites of Manhattan hotel.
A full-page short story of gripping interest.

Literary page giving most popular books of the day and current comment.

Arctic Craft Loses Communication With Outside

MAN PERISHES IN HOTEL FIRE

Sand Point, Idaho, Police Say Two Other Men May Have Died

Sand Point, Idaho, Sept. 4.—George Miller, thirty-seven, Boston, Mass., was burned to death and officers believed two others were incinerated early to-day when the Wisconsin House, the States Hotel and the Young garage here were destroyed by fire. The blaze started at 3.15 a.m. presumably in the pool room of the Wisconsin House, a hotel patronized chiefly by lumbermen and fire fighters.

The body of Miller was identified by L. W. Daniels, Wichita Falls, Texas, who said he had fought fires with Miller in the recent Yank-River valley conflagrations in Montana.

Firemen said the damage totaled $35,000.

Record Crowds Still Attending Provincial Exhibition At Willows

Almost 5,000 More People Have Paid Admission This Year Than During Corresponding Days of Last Year; Nearly 7,000 Pass Through Gates Yesterday; Counting Free Admissions, Officials Estimate 100,000 Have Attended in Four Days; Show Closed To-morrow Night

With the seventieth annual Provincial Exhibition drawing to a conclusion to-morrow and all the stock and produce which has been assembled at considerable trouble being taken away Sunday, the public is continuing its generous patronage of the biggest and best fair in the history of Victoria, in spite of overcast skies. Paid admissions yesterday totaled 6,892, making the number of paid admissions for the four days 27,129. Last year 22,642 visited the exhibition during the first four days and on the Thursday 5,515 people bought tickets, which was well over 1,000 less than yesterday.

An official pointed out this morning that children of grade school age are admitted free, and that passes are given to all exhibitors, officials and people connected with horse-racing. Counting in these free admissions, it is estimated that over 100,000 people have passed through the gates to date.

Citizens who have not visited the fair yet, are urged to do so, for late to-morrow evening exhibitors will start dismantling their displays. In the time of so-called depression, it is encouraging to witness what the province is doing in an industrial and financial assistance.

CHICAGO MAN IS MURDERED

Chicago, Sept. 4.—Mortimer P. Enright, thirty-eight, chief electrician for the Chicago Board of Education, was found shot and beaten to death on the grounds of the New York Golf Club near Hinsdale to-day. He had been shot five times in the face and his head beaten.

Police said he probably had been kidnapped. Sixty dollars were found on his body, discounting any theory of robbery.

CHILE MUTINY STATED ENDED

Naval Settlement Announced; Government Says It Controls Whole Country

Santiago, Chile, Sept. 4.—A statement saying the mutiny in the battle fleet at Coquimbo had been settled amicably and only the details of the settlement remained to be drawn up, was issued to-day by the Chilean government. The situation throughout the country, purportedly fomented by Communists, was reported under complete control.

Arrived Here From Vancouver To-day and Conferred With Premier Tolmie

Major-General A. D. McRae, organizer for the Federal Conservative party, whose appointment as senator to succeed the late Senator S. J. Crowe, of Vancouver, was made at Ottawa to-day, arrived in Victoria by the night boat from the mainland, and was this morning in conference with Premier Tolmie at the Parliament Buildings.

The new senator had further informal conference with political friends, congratulating him on his appointment, at the Empress Hotel this morning.

Ottawa, Sept. 4.—Major-General A. D. McRae, Vancouver, will be a senator from British Columbia, official announcement of his appointment to succeed the late Senator S. J. Crowe, of Vancouver, was made this afternoon.

Major-General McRae represented North Vancouver in the Commons from 1906 till 1910. He was chairman of the committee which organized the National Conservative Convention at Winnipeg in 1927 at which Mr. Bennett was chosen leader of the Conservative Party. Later he served as (Concluded on Page 4)

COURT WARNS AUTO DRIVERS

Fines For Reckless Driving Will Increase If Accidents Do Not Stop

Threatening to increase the fines imposed in common danger driving cases unless motorists are more careful and the number of accidents is reduced, Magistrate George Jay this morning in City Police Court reviewed the situation arising out of traffic fatalities here within the last few days.

The magistrate's comments were occasioned in the case of F. G. Buxton, charged with driving to the common danger as the result of a collision between his automobile and a street car at the intersection of Bay and Govers streets on Monday. He pleaded guilty through E. V. Finland and was fined $30.

"The increasing number of accidents," he said, "shows the growing lack of care on the part of drivers. Most of them have happened at intersections. There seems to be an opinion among motor drivers that they have the right of way on a highway and have the right to speed up and not slow down at intersections. While this does not apply in the case before the court, it might have been a much more serious accident."

The Motor Vehicle Act, the Magistrate pointed out, gave him wide discretion with a minimum fine of $10 and a maximum of $500.

"It may be necessary to increase the fines if this reckless driving does not stop," he added.

Another common danger case was heard, Jonathan Kirk, better known as an offence on Fort Street. This did not involve an accident.

EX-ARCHDUKE DIES

Vienna, Sept. 4.—Ex-Archduke Leopold Salvator, sixty-eight, father of Ex-Archduke Anton of Hapsburg, who recently married Princess Ileana of Roumania, died to-day. He had been ill for some time.

VETERANS ARE FOR SHOWING OF MORE EMPIRE TALKIES

Toronto, Sept. 4.—Speaking on a resolution urging a greater use of British-made films within the countries of the empire, Major-General Sir Frederick Maurice, at this morning's session of the British Empire Service League conference here, made the definite charge that Hollywood picture producers were deliberately producing inferior films in studios in Britain and exhibiting them as British pictures, in order to discredit British films generally.

This statement arose in the midst of a discussion of a resolution presented by Sir Percy Lake of Victoria, representing Canada. The resolution, which was adopted, reads: "That, in view of the great influence of the film on the public mind, and especially on the mind of the young generation, the conference urge all constituent organizations to encourage and promote the exhibition of films made within the empire by British producers, and to exercise their influence as regards the subject and character of these films, and further, to support the greater interchange of British films."

Added to this resolution was a rider calling attention to the propaganda against British films carried on by the Hollywood producers. It also urged the constituent organizations take steps in their respective countries to persuade theatres to give preference to empire-produced films.

This was strongly supported by the Australian and British delegates.

Chicago Stench Bomb Cargo Is Investigated

Chicago, Sept. 4.—A shipment of 28,800 stench bombs and two machine guns were being investigated by police here to-day.

The stench bombs were received yesterday by a novelty dealer who claimed they were meant really for the "practical joker" trade, but police suspect they were to be used in connection with the motion picture operators strike here.

The machine gun shipment was consigned to Peter von Franzus, sporting goods dealer, who figured in the investigation of the Moran gang massacre and the slaying of Alfred Lingie. Weapons purchased from him, it was testified, were used in both killings.

Copenhagen, Sept. 4.—The National Bank of Denmark to-day increased its discount rate from 3 1/2 to 4 1/2 per cent, effective to-morrow.

"Jungles" of Jobless In Vancouver To Be Ended

Medical Officer Tells Council Committee Shacks and Other Makeshift Shelters Create Disease Menace

Vancouver, Sept. 4.—The "Jungle" centres in Vancouver, where more than a thousand men live in makeshift shacks, lean-tos and other knocked together shelters, constitute a grave typhoid danger to the city, according to a warning given to the relief committee of the city council in a report by Dr. H. A. McDonald, city relief department medical officer. He recommended the "Jungles" be closed immediately.

One man to-day was in a hospital for typhoid observation and another was taken there suffering from as yet undiagnosed abdominal trouble. Both were from one of the city "Jungles."

NEW TOBACCO TAX IN BRITAIN IS PREDICTED

London, Sept. 4.—Restriction on the clearance of tobacco stocks from bonded warehouses, and the use of tobacco firms, The action was interpreted as indication a new tobacco tax will be included in the emergency budget at next week's special session of parliament.

London tea merchants are taking precautions against a possible tax on that commodity by making heavy withdrawals from warehouses.

Added to this resolution was a rider calling attention to the propaganda against British films carried on by the Hollywood producers. It also urged the constituent organizations take steps in their respective countries to persuade theatres to give preference to empire-produced films.

Alberta Crop Is Reported Uneven

Calgary, Sept. 4.—One of the most uneven grain crops will be harvested this season in central and southern Alberta, according to a crop report published today in The Calgary Daily Herald. Extended period of drought, hot winds and soil drying combined to bring about this situation, the report states.

Cutting is general and in some districts threshing is well under way. In the north of the province the crops are good, especially in the Peace River area, but the south and central sections have been struck hard by drought, although some areas will have good yields.

VETERANS' SONS TO BE TRAINED FOR THE LEAGUE

Canadian Press

Toronto, Sept. 4.—The question of perpetuating the organizations within the British Empire Service League was discussed at today's session of the fifth biennial conference here, when a memorandum submitted by Brig.-Gen. Alex. Ross of Yorkton, Sask., providing for organization of the sons of members and training them in the principles and traditions of service, so as to fit them for possible future membership in the organizations of the league, was adopted.

In submitting the resolution, General Ross pointed out there were still tens of thousands of service men who had not joined up, and said it would not be wise to introduce non-service elements into the league for some time yet. He urged, however, that such training as was suggested might be a great asset in the national life of the various countries in the Empire as well as providing for perpetuation of the league.

The British and Australian delegates supported the proposal, but Brig.-Gen. J. S. Wylie, South Africa, was not able to give it support, since the South Africa council had voted against it. General Ross also sponsored a resolution urging intensive membership campaigns, with special reference being made to those men with a capacity for leadership.

L. A. Robb of Australia, and G. H. Parker, representing the British Legion, supported the resolution, which was adopted.

JAPAN WARNS MANCHURIANS AFTER KILLING

Tokio Wants More Satisfactory Explanation of Shooting of Japanese Than That Given

Declares Capt. S. Nakamura Was Recognized Map Maker, Not Spy

Canadian Press

Tokio, Sept. 4.—Leading vernacular newspaper here today said Japan might resort to force against Manchuria because of an alleged unsatisfactory explanation by the latter for the killing a month ago of Capt. Shintaro Nakamura as an asserted spy.

Pronouncing the case one of murder, The Nichi Nichi, The Asahi, The Jiji Shimpo and other papers said the attitude of the War Office toward Mukden had suddenly stiffened, and that the Japanese authorities had demanded a more satisfactory explanation.

The War Office contends Nakamura was shot by a firing squad of Chinese troops, along with another Japanese, a Mongolian and a Russian, as spies. The Japanese assert the four men were on a map-making expedition and had for the killing a month ago of Capt. Shintaro Nakamura as an asserted spy.

According to the newspapers, officials of the War Department decided to take "certain resolute steps" unless the case was speedily and satisfactorily settled.

The resolution of the War Department, General Ross pointed out there were still tens of thousands of service men who had not joined up, and said it would not be wise to introduce non-service elements into the league for some time yet. NEW CABINET OF BRITAIN READY TO MEET M.P.'S

No More Sessions on Budget Till Commons Members Assemble Tuesday

Speedy Decisions of National Ministry Take Opposition By Surprise

London, Sept. 4.—The National Government's plans for balancing Great Britain's budget are fully matured and there will be no further meetings of the cabinet until next Monday, the day before Parliament assembles.

The new ministers—Labor, Liberal and Conservative—have worked in the closest harmony to date. The speed with which they completed their plans, indeed, has taken the opposition by surprise. It had been freely forecast in opposition circles the cabinet would not be in a position to meet Parliament before September 15.

GOES TO CREQUERS

Premier MacDonald filled his brief case with papers of state to-day and prepared for a week-end at Chequers, his country place. It had been expected the Premier would spend the week-end with the King at Balmoral Castle in Scotland, but in view of the pressure of work it was considered advisable he remain closer to London.

These members of Parliament who are also members of the co-operative movement will meet the co-operative union parliamentary committee on Monday. The union has already decided to support the official opposition, but if Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson, opposition leader, advocates tariffs as the alternative to cuts in the dole, the support of the co-operatives will be doubtful.

The official co-operative organ, The Co-operative, after reviewing the movement's state in the country and its financial and commercial interests, today asked:

"On the co-operative movement, which is largely engaged in international trading, be wholly indifferent to the maintenance of the gold standard and careless of the price of sterling?"

"Must it not always be opposed to safeguarding and all kinds of protective or revenue tariffs?"

"Trade union leaders may not care a fig for the warnings given by bankers. They may yet jump at the chance of excluding goods manufactured abroad. Can the co-operative movement square its policy with theirs and at the same time be zealous custodians of the interests of millions of consumers?"

MAN HELD FOR SLAYING

Denver, Colo., Sept. 3.—Angelo Moreale, said by police to be one of two gangsters who shot and killed fourteen-year-old Angelina Spitalo of Rochester, N.Y., during a gang battle, was in custody here today, having been arrested yesterday evening.

Farmers Wish To Kill Bears In Waterton Park

Calgary, Sept. 4.—Right to shoot bears in Waterton Lakes National Park in southeastern Alberta, is sought by ranchers of the district.

Cattle on ranches in the territory have been killed and carried within the park confines before ranchers were able to defend their stock and many ranchers are requesting the right to trail bears into the park, where they have found safety. Ranchers reported more than twenty cattle have been killed and carried away by bears, forced out of the mountains through forest fires and lack of berries. It is believed fewer than half a dozen bears are responsible for the cattle killing.

ANTI-BRITISH TEXT BOOKS IN U.S. ARE SCORED

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 4.—Prof. Charles M. Andrews, director of historical publications at Yale University, in a revision of his previous book dealing with the American revolution, about to be issued, says that "anti-British textbooks" used in schools in this country and "anti-British politicians" are perpetuating ill-will between this country and Great Britain.

PLOT IS NIPPED IN ARGENTINA

Buenos Aires, Sept. 4.—The Ministry of the Interior yesterday evening stated an anti-government plot in the province of Tucuman, said to have been promoted by followers of former President Irygoien, had been overthrown.

The promoters of the plot, it was announced, attempted to approach the troops, but the latter reported the incident and the leaders of the plot were arrested.

DEATH SENTENCE

Greeley, Colo., Sept. 4.—James V. Foster, confessed slayer of his wife and three children, was sentenced yesterday to be hanged the week of December 7, a district court jury having found him sane. He had confessed he killed his wife and their three small children by igniting gasoline which he threw over them as they slept in their home near here last May.

MOTHER SENT TO JAIL

Montreal, Sept. 4.—Claudia Lapointe, described by Judge Fiset as "an unnatural mother," was given six months in prison yesterday on a charge of inducing her fifteen-year-old son to steal. The youth worked in a store and when he called at his home while on an errand his mother ordered him to give her $108 his employer had given him to deposit in a bank. She told her son, the evidence indicated, to tell his employer he had been held up and robbed.

TOURING PARTY SEES BIG WORKS AT CHURCHILL

Canadian Chamber of Commerce Delegates Visit Hudson Bay Port

By ERNEST BURRITT
Canadian Press Staff Writer
Churchill, Man., Sept. 4.—The blossoming little town of Churchill on the rugged shore of the river by the same name yesterday received the approbation of some 300 Canadian business men on the pre-convention tour of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce. A day in the rocky little town, dominated by the big white grain elevator and harbor development, served to convince many that a great future lies before the Dominion and Manitoba governments' experimental seaport on Hudson Bay. After an entire day's inspection of the townsite and its surroundings, the visitors left on the return journey to The Pas, from where some will continue to the convention at Regina next week. Others are returning to their homes throughout the Dominion.

The town, with its little cottages nestled on the rocky heights of the ridge overlooking the harbor, its avenues already surveyed and bearing such names as Franklin Street and Hudson Square, its muskrat roads being covered with gravel and giant shovels clearing away rocky sections, presented a busy scene to the visitors.

They appeared greatly impressed with its appearance and spokesmen extolled the possibilities of its future. They were many, however, who desired to wait and see. There was much in its favor and there was much that only time and experiments could decide, several contented.

Premier Anderson of Saskatchewan, J. H. Woods of Calgary, Dominion president of the chamber, Hon. D. G. McEwen, Manitoba Minister of Mines and Natural Resources, and many members of the Dominion chamber, predicted a most successful future for the new seaport. All the speakers summarized their remarks with the idea that "what is good for Manitoba is good for Canada."

One marine insurance man who declined to be quoted said after an inspection of the port and a study of the proposed route, that he was unable to find why many had predicted exorbitant insurance rates.

Premier Anderson said the seaport would be of tremendous value to Manitoba and no one could deny the value that would accrue to the whole of Canada. Mr. Woods, Mr. Mackenzie and Col. W. L. McGregor of Windsor, Ont., who was accepted as representative of Ontario, all hoped the project would prove successful.

GREAT SNAIL FOSSIL FOUND

Seward, Alaska, Sept. 4.—What is believed here to be an enormous petrified snail was found in a sand cliff near Homer, on Kachemak Bay, Cook Inlet, by Oscar Munson. The fossil, weighing 150 pounds, was brought to Seward by Charles Madsen, manager of the Kodiak Guides' Association. He is shipping it to Claude R. Barr, big game hunter, at the Illinois State museum. The object is six feet in length, two and a half feet in diameter and from twelve to sixteen inches thick.

Vernon Reports Packing Houses Doing Next to Nothing in Apples

B.C. Wineries Refuse to Buy Grapes Due to Competition of Australian Wines

Canadian Press
Vernon, B.C., Sept. 4.—Reports indicate that the larger markets where carloads can be handled are buying peaches from the United States. On Saturday last at Yakima No. 1 Elbertas were quoted at 22½ cents f.o.b. the cars. Since then the price has risen to about thirty cents. Without the protection of the duty Okanagan growers would be in a bad way. As it is peaches from the United States are on all the markets that can absorb car lots, Okanagan peaches being mostly in centres receiving local shipments. There is a huge crop in the United States and the shipping agencies appear to be moving them regardless of cost. These peaches are said to be offering on Canadian markets at trifling below the $1.10 asked, for Okanagan Elbertas No. 1.

Italian prunes are moving freely at 75 cents. The crop was not so heavy as anticipated and the demand is good. The Kamloops district is said to be moving some McIntosh Red Apples. So far the Okanagan crop appears to lack color. It is gaining this slowly, and it is hoped that Okanagan growers will not be stampeded into picking "Macs" by the fact that Kamloops may move the whole of the crop, which only amounts to about twelve cars.

MUST HAVE MORE COLOR
If the "Macs" are to be moved at a fair price this season they must have color, and it may be better to let a few fall to the ground for the sake of the increase in color which will come with cooler nights, especially if there is some rain. Picking "Macs" about September 20 will prove beneficial. At least this is the view expressed by several shippers.

Car movement is exceptionally good and reports to the Bureau of Markets Information to September 2, show that 687 cars have gone out.

In contrast to this the packing houses are doing next to nothing in packing apples. Only skeleton crews are employed and the bulk deal seems likely to have a very serious effect on the local labor situation. It is not usual to have heavy staff packing at this season of the year but families dependent on the work are becoming anxious.

COMPETITION FOR B.C.
Ontario Duches are on the Winnipeg market with some bulk Wealthies. They are clashing with the B.C. Wealthies. Ontario grapes offer a real threat to fruits from British Columbia this season. The wineries are refusing to buy because of the competition by the Australian wines. Concord grapes from Ontario, it is predicted, will move west as far as Calgary. The price at shipping point is only twenty-five cents for a six-quart basket. Okanagan grapes will find their only outlet on the Pacific Coast.

DAY OF PRAYER
Glasgow, Scotland, Sept. 4.—On the suggestion of Rev. Dr. Cosser, who has just returned from a visit to Canada and the United States, the Glasgow Presbytery of the Church of Scotland will petition King George to set aside a national day of prayer. Dr. Cosser asserted he had found a widespread desire on the North American continent for a day of prayer in view of the general depression.

CIVILIZATION IS SPREADING IN HOLLYWOOD

New York, Sept. 4.—Hollywood has become, in the words of Frederick Lonsdale, English playwright, "quite elegant."

"And I mean it seriously," added Lonsdale as he climbed up the Mauretanian's gangplank en route to England. "There is no longer," he said, "confusion as to whether the servants are guests. The butler and chauffeur do not get friendly and discuss the intimacies of the households where they are employed."

Lonsdale said he was amazed to find Hollywood was practicing economies, just like the rest of the world.

SIX IN MOTORCAR ARE DROWNED

Columbus, O., Sept. 4.—A twenty-nine-year-old woman and her five children drowned when their automobile plunged from a road into the Scioto River, ten miles north of here yesterday evening. The woman's husband, H. H. Reichley, thirty-one, a fireman, was thrown clear of the car as it left the road, a narrow pathway leading through a city-owned park. He was not hurt.

YOUNGEST M.P. MAY LECTURE IN CANADA

Miss Jenny Lee, Labor Member British House of Commons, Expects to Tour

Canadian Press
Montreal, Sept. 4.—A frail little woman who stands five feet in her high-heeled shoes yet whose truculent spirit and sheer determination has made pompous statesmen quail, Miss Jenny Lee, baby member of the British House of Commons, will come to Canada this winter on a lecture tour if present plans materialize.

Miss Lee, a comely little Scottish lass, whose fellow members of the Commons maintain fears nothing, has admitted that she has qualms about her North American tour. Miss Lee is afraid of the reporters and cameramen she knows will besiege her as soon as she sets foot on this side of the Atlantic.

A WINNING SPEAKER

A stout champion of the Labor Party, Jenny Lee holds her membership by right of birth. Her father was a poor Fifehire miner who raised a large family on less than $25 a week. Her brothers and sisters generously sent Jenny through school and through the University of Edinburgh, whence she emerged with the degree of LL.B. Miss Lee taught school for several years and interested herself in politics. Party members found her a winning speaker at political rallies, and the young member's favorably gave her a rousing reception. The Labor Party awoke to her potentialities and she was nominated in 1924 as Labor candidate in Northern Motherwell. She took the seat from the Tories by a majority of 6,578, and was elected again by a 4,904 majority in the latest election.

Miss Lee was as cool as a cucumber when she first rose in the House to address the members. She rapidly gained experience, and is straightforward and sincere in her actions and opinions. The pomposity of dignified members of the House just makes her giggle. She is inconceivable, her own party have decided. She holds her own views and is not afraid to express them, as the House has found. She is considered something of a rebel among her own party.

Miss Cecil Eustace Smith of Toronto to Marry Edward H. Gooderham

Canadian Press
Toronto, Ont., Sept. 4.—Announcement is made here of the engagement of Miss Cecil Eustace Smith to Edward H. Gooderham, Toronto.

Miss Smith ranks as one of the foremost figure skaters in the world, and also one of the leading Canadian women golfers, having held the Ontario championship. She was runner-up for the Canadian ladies' golf championships last year.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. E. A. C. Wilcox entertained at the tea hour yesterday afternoon at her home in October Mansions. The tea table was centred with a large cut glass bowl of golden chrysanthemums, and the hostess was assisted in serving by her daughter, Miss Iris Wilcox; Miss Janet Lang and Miss Marjorie Judd.

Dr. and Mrs. T. H. Johns of 27 Olympian Avenue, left on Wednesday last on a motor trip via Spokane, Banff and Calgary to Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan. Dr. Johns will return via Saskatoon in a couple of weeks, while Mrs. Johns will remain for three weeks longer.

Purple Star Meeting.—The regular monthly social meeting of Victoria Purple Star was held on Wednesday evening with Mrs. W. M. Shand in the chair, assisted by Deputy Mistress Skett. Right Worshipful Sister Burke and Worthy Mistress Clark, Nanaimo, and other visitors from Nanaimo were present for the purpose of presenting Purple Star Lodge with the traveling Bible. At the conclusion of the meeting a supper was served in the banquet hall by Purple Star Lodge.

At a meeting of the Victoria Operatic Society held Wednesday evening in the office of the president, Harry Davis, a vote of sympathy was passed to the son and daughter of the late James Hunter, who had so ably filled the positions of vice-president and treasurer of the society. Mrs. Charles E. Wilson was elected vice-president and Titus Swan, treasurer. Fraser Lister was elected a member of the committee.

Their royal honeymoon may be a transatlantic flight to America. That is the air voyage which Princess Ileana of Roumania and her bridegroom, Prince Anton of Hapsburg, are reported to be planning. Here they are beside their plane—a wedding gift from King Carol of Roumania—Stag Lane Aerodrome, London. Prince Anton is an experienced aviator.

Your Baby and Mine

BY MYRTLE MEYER ELORED

READER SUGGESTS WAY TO MAKE ORANGE JUICE APPETIZING

Just as housewives get together and exchange canning recipes and new delectables, so the readers of this department are always eager to share any helps they have discovered in the realm of baby care. Here are two interesting discoveries which will perhaps be new to some of you.

Mrs. C. M. K. suggests a new way to dress up the daily orange juice so that if baby is tired of it, he will have a new zest for it. Beat egg yolk lightly and add to the orange juice using the juice of one orange and one egg yolk. She tried this with her own eleven months old child, and her neighbor tried it with an eleven months old baby. It worked with both.

Another excellent suggestion prevents the baby's bottle nipple from collapsing when he is in the midst of eating. Lay a piece of white cotton thread over the top of the bottle and then adjust the nipple. The thread should be long enough to extend below the nipple thus setting out air and preventing its going flat. This should please the baby even more than his mother.

BABY SPITS UP

Mrs. R. C. A. is troubled by her baby's excessive spitting up. She queries, "My baby is three months old and after almost every feeding she has a tendency to spit up, sometimes in great quantities. She gains about three or four ounces weekly. Is this enough for a breast-fed baby?"

A three or four-ounce gain is not as good as we expect of a well-fed baby. If the baby were being overfed and her small stomach over-filled, the chances are excellent that she would make an excessive gain in weight. When the gain is as poor as hers, we must look elsewhere for the cause of the spitting up.

It is possible that if the vomiting is projectile in character—that is, ejected with great force—there may be a malformation of the stomach. Have a pediatric look at the baby immediately. This type of vomiting is not due to the particular food, but to a tight muscle which prevents the baby's food from passing from the stomach into the small intestine. This needs medical treatment and not in-expert experimentation.

WEIGH AFTER NURSING

There are other reasons why baby may be vomiting. When the supply of milk is small, the baby works very hard for the little he gets. He swallows quantities of air, and his hunger and discomfort make him squirm and wriggle, thus increasing his tendency to vomit. Hold the baby up in the arms while nursing, and put up the gas frequently. Also weigh baby before and after each nursing to see how many ounces he has gained. This will indicate exactly how much milk he has taken. Compare this with the amount he should have.

Be sure there are no tight bands or binders pressing upon the stomach and causing vomiting. Prevent baby from turning over on his stomach soon after nursing. Do not handle him. He needs quiet and rest after eating. Please send me a self-addressed, stamped envelope for my "billet" called, "Reasons for Vomiting." This will clarify matters even more to you.

Welsh Meeting.—The Victoria Cymrodorion Society will meet in the Sons of England Hall, Broad Street, at 8 o'clock this evening. An interesting programme has been prepared and motion pictures taken by Mr. Fred Williams will be shown. At the close of the meeting refreshments will be served.

MANY GIFTS FOR SEAMEN

The September meeting of the Victoria Connaught Seamen's Institute, held yesterday afternoon in the institute, Superior Street, with the president, Mrs. Alice Thomson in the chair, was well attended. Reports of the various conveners of committees dealing with work accomplished during the summer were presented.

Mrs. J. Gordon Smith, treasurer, and Mrs. Sayer, secretary, gave the financial statement and the correspondence for July and August, and the number of men attending the institute for the past month was shown in the register to be 841 men, and thirty-six apprentice boys. Mrs. Minnis asked for the usual supply of wool to be distributed to her knitting committee, and the reports of the hospital visiting for the Jubilee and St. Joseph's hospitals were given by Mrs. Fimmore and Mrs. Mosher.

Though the number of sailor patients were not large visits had been regularly made and gifts distributed. A special letter of thanks was ordered sent to Rev. Acheson-Lyle for his kindness in visiting patients in both hospitals. A standing vote of thanks was given Mrs. W. G. McManus for her splendid effort as convener of the tag day for the Victoria Connaught Seamen's Institute on July 4. Appreciation was expressed for the gift of a bagatelle table received by Madame Claudet from Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Deane, St. Patrick Street. The president in her address of welcome after the holidays told of having sent, by the steamer, thirty-two boxes of books to the lighthouses. Mrs. Thomson also spoke of the excellent condition of the institute in commencing the winter season, and the satisfaction the membership felt in the general air of order and cheer. Copies of The Chart and Compass, and some pamphlets from Mr. J. Ritchie Bell of the Montreal Sailors' Club, were circulated among those present. Before the meeting adjourned afternoon tea was served.

New York Turfman Is Engaged Again

New York, Sept. 4.—The engagement of Cornelius Vanderbilt (Sonny) Whitney, to Miss Gladys Crosby Hopkins, Stratford, Pa., and New York, is announced.

Miss Hopkins is the daughter of the late Mark Hopkins Jr. of Boston, and Mrs. Stevens Hecksher of Stratford, Pa. She is the niece of the Marquis de Polignac of Paris. She has been attending the races at Saratoga with Whitney.

Mr. Whitney, who is thirty-two, is a prominent turfman, having taken over the interests of his father, the late Harry Payne Whitney. His first wife was Miss Marie C. Norton, now Mrs. W. Averil Harriman, whom he married in 1923. They were divorced in Reno in 1929.

Johnny Walker Deserves Much Credit for George Young's Win

Famous Toronto Coach Also Trained Miss Raviar, Women's Champ.

Kolehmainen Retires from Track Competition After Great Career

Baseball Games at Ketchikan Often Halted by the Rising Tide

GEORGE YOUNG, Toronto, winner of the fifteen-mile professional marathon swim in Lake Ontario, Great, too, is Margaret Raviar, Philadelphia, winner of the women's ten-mile swim at Friday. But greater still is Johnny Walker, famous Toronto swimming coach, under whose tutelage both Miss Raviar and Young ploughed to victory.

Walker, one of the greatest swimming coaches Canada has ever known, has been given credit by both Miss Raviar and Young for the strategy he displayed in both events. For months the swimmers had trained under the eagle eye of Walker. It was he who directed their swimming campaign in the two races. And it was he who, on the day of the great test, told them when to swim fast and when to swim slow.

On both days Walker personally rowed the accompanying boats and supervised the swimming and feeding of his two swimmers. Both Young and Miss Raviar praise Walker on the excellence of his coaching. Walker, meanwhile, is satisfied. Days ago he predicted that Miss Raviar and Young would win the two events. Walker, for years has coached Toronto swimmers, but it was only in the last few years that he devoted a great deal of his attention to the marathon distance. Already the records of those under his supervision are exceptionally good.

Predecessor of Paavo Nurmi as the "Flying Finn" of the track world, Hannes Kolehmainen, almost twenty years ago blazed a glorious trail for his countrymen to follow on the cinder paths of the world. Kolehmainen, an example and the annals of the sport amply reveal how well the youth of Finland responded. Now, Kolehmainen, at the age of forty-one, has hung up his spikes and retired from active participation in track athletics. The brilliant runner who carried off three first places in the 1912 Olympic games and has set three world records, to the astonishment of track followers, has retired.

Kolehmainen began to run twenty-two years ago and put his country to the forefront in Olympic competition before the younger Nurmi entered the international arena. Nineteen years ago, at the Stockholm Olympics, he won the 5,000-meter, 10,000-meter and cross-country runs, establishing new records in all three. In the next Olympic Games, at Antwerp in 1920, the war preventing the holding of the contests in 1916, Kolehmainen ran off with the laurels in the marathon, setting an Olympic record for the distance that still stands.

Twenty-five pounds heavier than he was in his best running days and troubled with a sore muscle just above the right heel, Kolehmainen has decided to give up his long and brilliant career. But he counts on his brother Willy, well known in the professional ranks, to carry along the fame of the Kolehmainens name.

Although three of his four records set in Olympic Games have been bettered, Hannes Kolehmainen is not in the least bit disturbed. Another Finn, the great Nurmi, broke them.

Baseball games have been called for various reasons, but occasionally, in Ketchikan, Alaska, the umpire has to halt a game on account of the tide, sending the fans regretfully home.

Ketchikan has a unique field, located on the tide flats. When the tide rolls in the game must end or the outfielders would have to use boats. The municipal field, laid out twenty years ago, provides a splendid playing surface at low tide. The level, hard and makes it ideal for speed.

A grand stand overlooks the beach diamond, but the field has to be marked out before each game. There is no other flat surface in the town, which is built at the foot of a mountain rising sheer from the sea.

After the baseball season is over the tide water field becomes a gridiron for the grade and high school athletes of Ketchikan.

Night baseball has been providing new problems, and now Pacific Coast League authorities have decided to keep up 5,013 golf clubs in the United States. The statisticians also say that they are valued by the government at $998,000,000. Another report would have one believe that the fishermen of the United States spend $5,722,632 a year for equipment.

Opening Game of Best Two Out of Three Series Will Take Place at Royal Athletic Park To-morrow, Commencing at 5.30 o'clock; New Westminster Chislers Bringing Strong Nine; Lloyd Jones to Pitch for Jokers; Preliminary Game Will Start at 4 o'clock

In their third successive attempt to win a British Columbia softball championship, the Victoria Jokers, champions of Victoria and Island, will go up against the New Westminster Chislers, mainland titleholders, in the opening game of the provincial final to-morrow afternoon at Royal Athletic Park. The game will get under way at 5.30 o'clock with Bob Whyte as umpire-in-chief. A large crowd is anticipated.

FAVORITES IN SIX WINS AT WILLOWS OVAL

Public Choices Come Through in All But One Race at Fifth Day's Programme

Fanny Fasterton Pays $13.55 For Best Win Price; Mills Again Leads Riders

Form followers had a great time at the Willows track yesterday afternoon and those who lay their bets according to the "dope" saw six favorites come through out of the seven races. The fifth day of the meet witnessed another splendid crowd and betting was considerably higher than for the corresponding day last year. The daily double returned the small odds of $16.15 for $2, a large percentage of the bets being successful in picking the two winners.

The best win price of the afternoon was returned by Fanny Fasterton, who captured first money in the fifth race. The Western Breeders' Handicap over the mile route. Given the benefit of a fine ride by Craigmy's, the winner went to the front entering the stretch to gain a head decision from York Home.

Extension finished second, The winner paid $12.55. Prince Sally, the favorite, refused to break and after catching up with the field fell back to last place.

FIRST FAVORITE HOME
Tuscaloosa, the favorite, was the winner of the opening race, with King Han second and Pretty Ellen third. Jockey Mills took the winner to the front in the early runner and she proved always the best of the field.

The second race the second favorite came through when Rag Bag, with Pevie up, beat off the final drive of School Hills, a rank outsider, to win by half a length. The latter returned $26.40 for a place ticket. Chief's Warbler finished in third position.

Lady Spain scored her second straight victory at the Willows by taking first money in the third over six furlongs and thirty yards. Lady Spain was all ways out in front and won handily. Little Broom was easily second best, with Skoll third.

In the fourth Lady Aggie, a red-hot favorite, lived up to expectations by walking away from her field. She paid only $3.75 for a $2 win ticket. Missive was second and Joe's Pearl third.

In the sixth race the fans put their money on every horse and the betting was very evenly distributed with the result that Tommy McCoomb, the favorite, paid $12.55. Neida Jo was second and Trade Wind third.

VOYAGE TAKES SEVENTH
Voyage, another favorite, carried off first money in the seventh, with two lengths from Terrifier, with Welly third. Terrifier made a game bid in the stretch but was unable to close the gap.

Mills again led the riders yesterday with three wins and a third to his credit. Craigmy's had two winners while the other three were divided between Pevie, Swift and Gerard.

The results follow:
First race—Purse $300, for maiden two-year-olds. Four furlongs: 1, Tuscaloosa, $3.25; 2, King Han, $6.25; 3, Pretty Ellen, $6.25.
Second race—Claiming, purse $300; three-year-olds and older. Five furlongs: 1, Rag Bag, $16.15; 2, Chief's Warbler, $3.50; 3, Chief's Warbler, $3.50. Time, 1:11.
Third race—Claiming, purse $300; three-year-olds and older. Six furlongs and thirty yards: 1, Lady Spain, $4.50; 2, Little Broom, $3.50; 3, Skoll, $2.25. Time, 1:18.
Fourth race—Claiming, purse $300; three-year-olds and older. Six furlongs and thirty yards: 1, Lady Aggie, $3.75; 2, Missive, $3.55; 3, Joe's Pearl, $2.25. Time, 1:17 2-5.
Fifth race—The Western Breeders' Handicap, purse $500, for three-year-olds and older. One mile: 1, Fanny Fasterton, $12.55; 2, York Home, $2.80; 3, Extension, $4.50. Time, 1:44 2-5.
Sixth race—Claiming, purse $300; three-year-olds and older. Mile and seventy yards: 1, Tommy McCoomb, $7.85; 2, Neida Jo, $5.00; 3, Trade Wind, $7.85. Time, 1:49.
Seventh race—Claiming, purse $300; three-year-olds and older. Mile and seventy yards: 1, Voyage, $4.50; 2, Terrifier, $2.25; 3, Welly, $2.25. Time, 1:50.

The second game of the series will be played at Vancouver on Labor Day, and if a third game is necessary, a double-header will be played. Both the finalists have first-class outfits and local officials are predicting a bit of a close finish. In view of the large crowds that attended the two Island final games here between the Jokers and Duncan the stand at the Royal Athletic Park to-morrow is expected to be well filled. Softball has grown in popularity here in leaps and bounds the last two seasons, and the teams have received fine support.

JONES TO PITCH
Lloyd Jones, star southpaw twirler of the Jokers, will start for them to-morrow. Jones has a wicked delivery, lots of speed and fine control. Banks will complete the battery for the local champions. Munro will be on first base with Barney Barnswell holding down the keystone base. Harry Younan will be at the shortstop position with Mike Wagland as third. The outfield will be composed of MacKenzie, Sweeney and Carmichael.

To reach the British Columbia final the Jokers hurdled some tough competition. After winning the Westholme League championship they engaged in a series with four teams from the City League to determine the Victoria champions. Following a victory in this competition the Jokers went up against Duncan, up-Island winners. The first game ended in a 2-2 draw after eleven innings of thrilling ball. In the second game played at Duncan the Jokers scored an 8 to 7 victory in eleven innings, while they clinched the title by turning back their opponents 11 to 4 in the third game.

The New Westminster club gained their place in the final by a great victory over the Canadian Bakers team, Vancouver. Last year's British Columbia champions, in the deciding game the Chislers defeated the Bakers 9 to 1, and this score gives an indication of their strength.

PRELIMINARY GAME
As a preliminary game the Astoria team met the Seaside Thistles at 4 o'clock in the semi-final of the Calvert Cup series. This game was to have been played to-night, but has been switched to to-morrow afternoon in order to give the fans two games for the one admission charge. This game will be umpired by McConnell and Forman.

Saanich Thistles To Hold Practice
A practice of the Saanich Thistles' First Division football team will be held at the Central Park to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. All players are requested to turn out.

TO MAKE FINAL REGATTA PLANS THIS EVENING

Rowing Committee of J.B.A.A. to Draw Up Fall Meet Programme To-night

Several Fine Trophies Up For Competition; Dance to Close Day

Final plans for the J.B.A.A. fall regatta, to be held at the Gorge on Labor Day, will be drawn up at a special meeting of the rowing committee in the clubhouse this evening. Five outstanding races, including senior, junior and novice fours have been arranged. Other competitions will be decided upon this evening.

Several fine trophies will be at stake in the meet, which is one of the features of the local rowing season. Added interest has been shown in the contests this year since several of the oarsmen who will be competing will be N.P.A.A.O. champions. In addition to these are several men who have been rowing neck and neck with the titleholders throughout the summer and should give them a good run for their money in the big regatta. It is understood the crews will be split up in order to make the races closer.

The first event will get under way at 2.30 o'clock.

TO HOLD DANCE
In the evening the oarsmen, accompanied by their friends, will hold a dance in the Shrine Auditorium, starting at 9 o'clock. Trophies won during the day are expected to be presented at the function.

A splendid orchestra has been secured for the event, which will be staged by the dance committee under the chairmanship of T. D. Roberts. A large turnout is expected.

J. DIX FRASER WINS CANADIAN SENIORS' GOLF

Toronto Veteran Scores 158 For 36-Hole Tournament Held at St. Bruno

George S. Lyon, Ten Times Winner of Title, Second, Five Strokes Behind

St. Bruno, Que., Sept. 4.—J. Dix Fraser, Toronto, captured the Canadian seniors' golf championship yesterday when he toured the course of the Mount Bruno Country Club in seventy-seven strokes to make a thirty-six-hole total of 158 and lead a field of 100 competing in the annual tournament of the Canadian Seniors Golf Association. The fifty-eight-year-old Toronto veteran was a contender since he joined the senior ranks, and last year he was runner up to George S. Lyon, Lambton, Toronto, ten times winner of the senior crown.

In winning the Dominion title, Fraser scored a victory over the grand old man of Canadian golf, George S. Lyon, of Lambton, Toronto, the defending champion. The rivals staged a battle of their own over the two-day tournament of the Canadian Seniors' Golf Association, Fraser leading at the end of the first day, a single stroke better than Lyon's 82.

PLAYS CONSISTENTLY
Yesterday Fraser forged further in the lead as he played consistently on the par seventy course. He was out in thirty-eight, while Lyon required forty, and on the home nine Fraser added to high margin by scoring 39 to Lyon's 41 for a grand total of 158. Lyon was five strokes back with 163.

Fraser touched his first golf club at forty-three, and his victory yesterday was the first of major importance in his career.

Dempsey Will Get $10,000 For Reno Fight With Lomski
Reno, Nev., Sept. 4.—Labor's golden jubilee will be celebrated here Labor Day in true westward fashion. With Jack Dempsey meeting Leo Lomski, his first real opponent since he began his comeback attempt, at the headliner, there will be forty rounds of prize fighting, motorcycle races, a rodeo athletics and an air circus.

Dempsey has been guaranteed $10,000 for his four-rounds "exhibition" bout with Lomski at the race track arena.

FIGHT HALTED AGAIN
Indianapolis, Sept. 4.—The Midway Fight Club's Atherton ten-round non-title flyweight bout, twice postponed on account of rain, yesterday evening was shifted to Tuesday, September 8. A rainstorm drenched the arena late yesterday.

Proposed Japan Tour By Canadian Rugbys Is Discussed In Montreal

Montreal, Sept. 4.—The question of whether a Canadian team of English rugby players will go to Japan this winter to return the visit of the Japanese team last fall is under discussion to-day at the convention of the English Rugby Union of Canada.

It is thought probable that a Canadian team will be chosen from the best players of the various provinces. Players will probably assemble in British Columbia about Christmas and sail for Japan the day following Christmas to play six games in that country.

F. Ouimet and Three "Kids" Reach Semis In U.S. Golf Chase

Thirty-eight-year-old Boston Player Is "Old Man" of the Field; Other Three Semi-finalists Are Maurice McCarthy, Billy Howell and Jack Westland; Ouimet Opposes Howell, Nineteen-year-old Richmond Youth To-day; Past Performance and Experience Make Veteran Favorite to Lift Crown

Chicago, Sept. 4.—"Old Man" Francis Ouimet, Boston, and three of the neighbors' children were still fighting it out among themselves to-day for the elusive U.S. amateur golf championship at Beverly.

It was a field of strange contrasts. At thirty-eight years Ouimet was the "old man" of the field. Aligned against him were three who were playing hide-go-seek, if anything, when he first boomed forth to win his national open crown eighteen years ago—nineteen-year-old Billy Howell, Richmond, Va., Maurice McCarthy, twenty-four-year-old son of the New York professional, and twenty-seven-year-old Jack Westland, Chicago.

To make it stranger yet in the semi-final act of the big show to-day, Ouimet was matched against Howell, a youth half his age, who was in the battle for the first time. McCarthy, Ouimet's comeback bid was doubtful.

OUIMET FAVORED
Past performance and his wide edge on experience alone made Ouimet the favorite to-day and probably the big favorite of the survivors to smash his way through to the championship, which has been denied him thirteen times since he won it in 1913. Howell looked like a hard opponent without doubt because of his march through perhaps the strongest opposition of the field, but whether he could match Ouimet's comeback bid was doubtful.

Ouimet crushed Johnny Shields, Seattle, 4 and 3; Young Frank Conolly, Detroit, 5 and 4; and the young and lighter Paul Jackson, Kansas City, 7 and 6, in yesterday's semi-final match. Howell, in addition to his victory over Goodman, defeated Owen Covey, Salt Lake City, 4 and 2, and then staged a fine comeback yesterday to defeat Lester Bolstad, St. Paul, former big ten and national public links champion, 3 and 2.

McCarthy was only six over par in his round yesterday, won the 1931 title.

Launch Plans For Big Rugby Season Starting November

Fifth Regiment Will Enter Team in Local Senior League; Canadian Scottish and Oak Bay Wanderers Other Sure Performers; J.B.A.A. Doubtful; Japan Trip Plans Discussed; Flood Lighting for Royal Athletic Park Suggested; Victorians Informed of New Rulings

Information on the proposed trip of a rugby team from Canada to Japan next January, given by J. H. Ketchen, secretary of the B.C. Rugby Union, announcement that the 5th Regiment would have a team in the senior league, while the J.B.A.A. stated it was still undecided on the matter, suggestion that the Royal Athletic Park be equipped with flood-lights for night rugby and discussion of changes in rules, featured the open executive meeting of the Victoria Rugby Union in the Christie Hall building yesterday evening. Dates for the closing of entries in the senior and intermediate leagues were set for October 1 and 7, respectively. A motion was passed to have the senior division open its season during the first week in November.

Bob Travis, reporting for the Canadian Scottish club, was prepared to enter the league again. Charlie Morton asserted the Oak Bay Wanderers would again be in the battle, and Eusebius Ter announced the 5th Regiment would enter for the first time. Bob McInnes, J.B.A.A. manager, stated his club was undecided as yet, but the meeting was of the opinion the 5th Regiment would have a squad in the loop.

NAVY TO PLAY IN EXHIBITIONS
Although nothing definite was stated, it was understood the navy would have a fifteen which would play exhibition games, but would not be able to take part in the schedule since the ships from which the players came were not to be stationed at Esquimalt throughout the year.

The Victoria Rugby Union had requested the New Zealand kicking rule be abolished, the meeting was reminded. This would be considered by the B.C. Union shortly.

In favor of the abolition of the regulation, Mr. Ketchen stated there was every prospect of a British university and public school team touring Canada in 1932 providing the Dominion observed the English union rules. It was pointed out also that the New Zealanders were considering doing away with their special regulation to conform with the international rules. Changes in the regulations drawn up at the last meeting of the British Rugby Union were announced by J. B. Aisland, who referred particularly to alterations in scrum regulations.

INTERMEDIATES TO MEET SOON
V. L. Denton, president of the local body, announced he would ask Fraser Lister, intermediate leader, to call a meeting shortly to make plans for the organization of his division.

With the approaching tour to Japan dominating the rugby horizon it was suggested that all first half McKenzie Cup fixtures be played before Christmas in order that those stars chosen from the Canadian team could leave B.C. on December 28. Announcement of dates for the inter-city series is expected shortly.

R. H. McInnes, reporting on school rugby, declared he thought the schools of the city would operate their own leagues independently of the union. Mr. Denton promised him all the cooperation the body could give.

Weekly meetings of the union will be held on Wednesday nights. It was decided.

SEEKS FLOOD LIGHTS
A. H. Cox suggested the rugby union call a meeting of other outdoor sport bodies including the baseball, soccer, lacrosse, Canadian rugby and softball groups with a view to approaching the City Council with a request for the installation of flood lights at the Royal Athletic Park. Although the actual costs of putting in the illumination would be considerable, he thought the returns from night games in all these branches of sport would be large enough to produce a surplus on the original investment.

Such a scheme would also make it possible to have two games played a day at the park. Referring to the popularity of night games in Vancouver, Mr. Cox expressed the opinion that they would be well received here.

LEADING SWIM STARS ENTER

George Young, Clarence Ross and William Goll in Montreal Grind on Sunday

Montreal, Que., Sept. 4.—Outstanding swimming stars of the continent will plunge into the St. Lawrence River at Pointe aux Trembles, Montreal Island, next Sunday, in the eight-mile swim second place winner at the Canadian National Exhibition yesterday. Fifty-two have entered.

German Girl Sets New World Record For 400-Metre Swim

Leipzig, Germany, Sept. 4.—Frauella Hertha Wunder established a new women's world record for the 400-metre breast-stroke swim yesterday evening when she covered the distance in six minutes forty-two and four-tenths seconds. The old record was six minutes forty-five and six-tenths seconds, held by Marie Baron of Holland.

B.C. FIFTEEN SHOULD MAKE JAPAN TOUR

British Columbia Union Will Press For All Coast Players on Far East Trip

Finance Plans Only Obstacle; Six-games Series at Tokyo and Osaka

On the grounds that British Columbia bore the brunt of all expenses connected with the visit of the Imperial Japanese rugby squad here last year, and further that teams of this province would be the only ones in training when the proposed tour would take place, J. Fyfe Smith and Reg. Woodward, B.C. delegates to the annual meeting of the English Rugby Union of Canada now in session in Montreal, were instructed to ask the Canadian team to make the trip be made up almost entirely of B.C. players. Word to this effect was given by J. H. Ketchen, secretary of the B.C. Union, at the executive meeting of the Victoria group in the Christie Hall building yesterday evening.

The proposal met the unanimous approval of the meeting.

Such a plan at present are the only obstacle in the path of the committee arranging the trip. It is possible approximately $3,000 may have to be raised in order to send the Canadians over to Japan.

SIX-GAME SERIES
Negotiations made to date with the Japanese call for a series of six games in the hand of the cherry blossom, three to be played in Tokyo and three in Osaka, the first to take place on January 10.

Any money the Canadian team would have to raise for the way of transportation would be returned to it if the gates receipts from the Japanese games were large enough.

Regarding the competition of the team, the B.C. body feels that only players of this province would be in trim by the time the trip came off. Playing conditions in the east are such that no leagues can be carried on around Christmas time. Should any easterners be chosen for the fifteen, they would have to come to the coast several weeks before the tour started in order to work in with the B.C. boys.

To this may be added the argument that the University of British Columbia's team which toured the east last year completed its trip without a single defeat.

The suggestion has also been advanced that the players go across to Japan on a Japanese boat.

Oak Bay Wanderers Football Club To Hold Meeting Soon
A meeting of the Oak Bay Wanderers' Football Club will be held on Thursday, September 10, at 7.30 o'clock, in the gymnasium of St. Michael's School, 2176 Windsor Road. All players are requested to attend and also all those interested in the game are cordially invited to be present, as arrangements for the coming season will be fully discussed.

Open Tourney For U.S. Tennis Championship

Dr. Jack Wright And Rainville To Represent Canada

Dominion's Leading Davis Cup Stars Will Start Chase To-morrow at Forest Hills for Title at Present Retained by Johnny Doeg; Latter Is Not Figured in Early Picking; Ellsworth Vines, Sensational California Youth, Seeded Number One; Fred Perry Heads British Contingent

Forest Hills, N.Y., Sept. 4.—One of the most "open" tournaments on record is the prospect for the golden jubilee men's singles championship of the United States Lawn Tennis Association, which starts to-morrow. With the figures of Big Bill Tilden, Henri Cochet and other outstanding stars of the past missing from the scene, about twenty of the eighty-four players who have entered the tournament, which helps the celebration of fifty years of organized tennis in the United States, are conceded fair chances of victory.

BRAMPTON IN CRUCIAL GAME WITH CALGARY

Eastern Lacrosse Champs Must Beat Prairie Team to Qualify For Canadian Final

Winner of Sudden-death Affair To-night Will Meet New Westminster Salmonbellies

Calgary, Alta., Sept. 4.—Up from nowhere, a new obstacle loomed to-day in the title-bound path of Brampton Excelsiors, seekers after a second successive Dominion lacrosse championship. Excelsiors thought they entered the Dominion final by eliminating Winnipeg Wellingtons, but now find that they must meet Calgary all-stars to-night in another semi-final.

Right to meet New Westminster Salmonbellies, whom they defeated in the 1930 Canadian final, is denied the easterners unless they gain sudden-death victory against Calgary. The Calgary don is not yet crowned Alberta winner, as a play-off series with Medicine Hat is unfinished, but the Hat squad has agreed that Calgary represent the province in the play-down. The match at Calgary had been billed as an exhibition until W. O. Graham, secretary of the Dominion Lacrosse Association, announced it would be a bona-fide semi-final.

Little hope is held out for Johnny Doeg, who scored a surprising victory last year. Although he is ranked first in the national list, he was dropped to fifth place when it came to seeding players, and the place of honor was given to Ellsworth Vines, the sensational Pasadena, Cal., student.

Behind Vines on the United States seeded list come Frank Shields, Davis Cup ace, Sydney Wood, the Wimbledon champion; George Lott, Philadelphia; Doug Cuff Sutter, New Orleans; Johnny Van Ryn, Philadelphia, and Wilmer Allison, Austin, Texas. Fred Perry heads the British array, which has clinched the international team matches in Philadelphia in two days of play with his partner George P. Hughes, third on the list of foreign players. Christian Bousquet, of France, is second, and Jacques Brugnon, fourth.

Then come two Canadian stars, Dr. Jack Wright and Marcel Rainville with the two French youngsters, Marcel Bernard and Andre Merlon bringing up the rear. Another French player, Bernard Law, Federico Sende, Mexico, and Mario V. Gonzalez, Argentina, complete the outside threat.

Harry F. Sinclair Gets $81,300 For His Racing Stable

Saratoga Springs, N.Y., Sept. 4.—The famous white and green-capped silks of Harry F. Sinclair's Rancocas stable were retired from the turf yesterday as twenty-five thoroughbreds, representing the stable's horses in training, passed into new hands via the auction block in the Saratoga race course paddock.

The twenty-five horses, many of which have carried the popular Sinclair colors to stake victories, sold for a total of $81,300, an average of $3,252 per head.

The top price was paid for the two-year-old Defier, a son of Bud Lerner, for which Frank Seremba paid $12,600. Defier is eligible for the Hopeful stakes Saturday.

LOCAL CRICKETERS TO MEET VANCOUVER TEAM ON MAINLAND MONDAY

For the last big cricket match of the season a representative eleven from Victoria, including F. A. Sparks and Reg. Wenman, renowned batting pair of many an interprovincial match, as well as E. Ball, one of the highest bats and backbone of Saskatchewan's team in the last western Canada tournament, will journey to Vancouver on Sunday for an all-day match on Labor Day. The fixture will be the return game for the one played here on Dominion Day. In the first encounter the Vancouver team walked off with a victory by three wickets.

With the team at full strength, the selection committee for the Victoria eleven is looking to the locals to reverse the decision in Vancouver. The match will be played on the Brockton Point grounds, starting at 10 o'clock.

Preceding it, the Capital City squad will be guests at a special breakfast in the Quadra Club.

The teams follow:
Victoria—F. A. Sparks, Reg. Wenman, E. Ball, G. C. Grant, J. F. Meredith, F. W. Edwards, H. M. Allen, J. Gibbons, F. Allwood, W. Mowbray and N. F. Pitt.

Vancouver—E. S. Bullen (captain), Dobbie, Wally Scott, Bill Ivamy, Jim Hughes, Jim Mitchell, Smyth, Webb, Smeeth, Jerry Peel and Ernie Pinkham.

Twenty Grand and Sun Beau To Meet

Two Famous Three-year-olds Entered in $5,000 Saratoga Cup To-morrow

Twenty Grand Will Have Weight Advantage; $50,000 Hopeful Also Scheduled

Saratoga Springs, N.Y., Sept. 4.—A $50,000 race will take a back seat at the Spa course to-morrow when Sun Beau, Twenty Grand and a few other horses battle chiefly for the honor of winning the $5,000 Added Saratoga Cup. Financially the $50,000 Hopeful, first of the rich two-year-old features of the year, heads the closing day program but the crowd of 20,000 or more will be there because of the expected duel between Sun Beau, world's leading money winner, and Twenty Grand, co-holder of the three-year-old title.

Probably three or four other horses will be named to contest the issue over the mile and six furlongs, but past performances indicate that the race will be strictly a Sun Beau and Twenty Grand affair.

DIFFERENCE IN WEIGHTS
Sun Beau, which has earned $355,044, is at the top of his brilliant career, while Twenty Grand has been defeated only twice this year—both times by a margin which will not be in to-morrow's contest because of a leg injury. Because of the weight for age clause, Twenty Grand will carry 115 pounds as compared with Sun Beau's package of 120 pounds.

JACK PROVES REAL TROUPEUR

Grief-stricken at Death of Brother, Dempsey Will Go Through With His Bout

Barney Was Operator of Gymnasium in Los Angeles; Jack at Eugene To-night

Portland, Ore., Sept. 4.—Jack Dempsey was being a good trouper here yesterday. Grief-stricken at the death of his brother, Barney, in Los Angeles, he announced that he would go through with all fight exhibitions immediate contracts call for.

Appearances he mentioned were at Eugene, Ore., to-night, at Reno Labor Day and a Milk Fund benefit at Tacoma later.

"My first impulse was to call everything off," Jack said, "but it would not be fair to the promoters, who have gone to great expense, nor to the people who have laid plans to see the exhibitions."

One thing that hit Dempsey hardest, his manager, Leonard Sachs, said, was that he will be unable to attend the funeral when it is held in Los Angeles. Pending litigation with his wife, Estelle Taylor, will keep him away Sachs explained.

Dempsey said news of his brother's death came to him as an especial shock, though he had been ailing for some time.

Los Angeles, Sept. 4.—Barney Dempsey, forty-nine, brother of Jack, former heavyweight boxing champion of the world, died at 8:30 a.m. yesterday following an attack of acute indigestion.

Connected with boxing in southern California for many years, Barney owned and operated the Manhattan Gymnasium here where fighters trained.

He left the gymnasium Wednesday night for his home, with the words on his lips that he "never felt better in his life." Barney had been in failing health for a number of years.

Besides operating the Manhattan Gymnasium, Barney handled Jack's local business when he was not in southern California.

SOCCER MEETING BILLED TUESDAY

A meeting of the Lower Island Football Association will be held next Tuesday evening at the Y.M.C.A. at 7 o'clock. Registration forms for the 1931-32 season will be available after the meeting, to all teams whose affiliation fee has been forwarded to Vancouver.

JIMMY THOMPSON

SCOTTY'S SPECIAL STICK

One of the most interesting performers in sport this year has been Scotty Martin, the Mohawk Indian star with the Toronto Maple Leafs in the professional box or court lacrosse league. Survivor of a "dogging" race, Martin's prowess in a sport fathered by his forebears has thrilled thousands of fans who cheer him to a man.

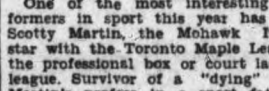

As a matter of fact, the brave has been getting by with a very special kind of lacrosse stick, looking like a badly sagged tennis racket. It is short on the gut end and rounded at the handle and to almost a half circle. It is an Indian hand-made stick from the Brantford Reserve. With that short stick and the big pocket, the opposition find it almost impossible to check the ball away from Martin.

Two Galt Runners Going to Winnipeg

Galt, Ont., Sept. 4.—Through the generosity of citizens in subscribing money to pay their expenses, Billy Reynolds and Fred Sargeant, well-known local runners, left yesterday evening for Winnipeg to take part in the Canadian championship track meet on Labor Day. Cliff Bricker is not going west, but will run at the Toronto exhibition.

Cincinnati Redlegs Knock Over Chicago For Fourth Victory

Last-place Club in National League Shows Surprising Strength by Taking Cubs Into Camp in Ten Innings; Duel 3 to 2; Pittsburgh Pirate Crash Out 6 to 4 Triumph Over St. Louis; Melillo Stars With Bat as St. Louis Downs Cleveland

The boys smiled tolerantly not long ago when Colonel Dan Howley in one of his exclusive interviews, expressed the opinion that his Cincinnati Reds were "the best last-place club the National League ever saw."

What the colonel inferred was that he had a corking good team, but that it was up against the strongest opposition in the history of the circuit. From the manner in which his Redlegs have been knocking off the Chicago Cubs the last several days, it appears he knew what he was talking about.

They made it four straight yesterday when Owen Carroll outlasted Pat Malone in a ten-inning mound duel, 3 to 2.

Carroll became the fourth Red to go the distance and win from the Hornsby men, Lucas, Johnson and Benton having turned the trick since Sunday.

In the only other National League game played by the rain, the Pittsburgh Pirates fell on Burleigh Grimes, himself, for a 6 to 4 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals. Led by young Tony Piet, rookie second baseman, who rapped two doubles and a single and scored twice, the Pirates got to Grimes for seven hits and all their runs in the second and third innings.

Melillo IS STAR

Oscar Melillo cracked a double and three singles and drove in five runs when they knocked Bob Weiland loose, the Detroit Tigers ran up a 9 to 3 score in their opener against the Chicago White Sox. Herring held the Sox to three hits the last six innings and secured bang-up support, Mark Koenig handling thirteen chances without a bobbie. Carl Reynolds of the Sox hit a homer in the third.

The league's four eastern clubs had an off day.

Watching the Majors

The four games played on yesterday's curtailed major league programme failed to disturb the standing of the big six, only two of the leaders seeing action. Eddie Morgan of Cleveland, third in the standing, lost a point when he connected once in four trips, but still was ahead of Lou Gehrig, his closest American League rival. Jim Bottomley of St. Louis fell into a tie with Chuck Klein of the Phillies for third place in the National, when he hit only once in four attempts.

HOW THEY STAND

See made known his intention yesterday in a long telegram to Gen. John V. Cinnin, president of the National Boxing Commission at Chicago. He asked the commission to support him in his claim if, and when, it is made.

See related the Madison Square Garden Corporation of Illinois had had Carnera and Schmeling under contract to fight since January 1st last. The big Italian, he asserted, has been training faithfully for the fight at Orangeburg, N.Y.

There is slight possibility that Schmeling will uphold his end of the contract, since German physicians recently advised him to stay out of the ring for "some time," the result of an eye injury received in the Stirling bout at Cleveland.

THERE WILL BE SOMETHING NEW TO-MORROW

Every time you feel like muttering "There's nothing new under the sun," take up your daily paper and read through the advertisements. Chances are, you'll change your mind. Here's a new wrinkle in sanitary plumbing... there's a new kind of carpet that should have been thought of long ago... here's a decidedly better way of washing delicate fabrics.

These things concern you intimately—they affect your life and the manner in which you live it. They are new things under the sun. And advertisements are the arms with which they reach out and touch you. Read the advertisements regularly. There will be something new to-morrow... and the day after... and the day after that. Something you wouldn't want to miss.

AMATEUR GOAT JUDGING CLASS WELL CONTESTED
Mrs. S. L. Jones Is Winner; Malcolm Bissenden Best Child Milker
Splendid Nubians, Saanens and Toggenburgs Exhibited; Complete Results

Mrs. S. L. Jones has been declared winner of the amateur goat judging competition, one of the big features of the goat section at the Provincial Exhibition. No better method than this of fostering an intelligent appreciation of the animals can be imagined, and the enthusiasm of the various amateurs in the competition testified to its popularity.
Spirited rivalry also occurred in the children's milking competition, the award for which went to Malcolm Bissenden.

The pure-bred Nubians of W. H. Moyes, the pure-bred Saanens of S. L. Jones and Mrs. L. Blakeney, the grade Saanens of Mrs. Blakeney and the surprisingly good Toggenburgs of W. and K. Burton were all noted by the judges and given the lion's share of the prizes in their respective sections.

NO SHORT CUT TO RECOVERY
Courage and Spirit Will End Depression, Premier Says

Ward Seven Saanich Conservatives yesterday evening heard addresses by Premier Tolmie, C. H. Dickie, M.P., and H. D. Twigg, M.P.P. Optimism for the future was expressed by the speakers who dealt with various angles of the present economic situation.

Premier Tolmie talked of the development of foreign markets for Canadian goods. Trade treaties aimed at this objective had been made and would be beneficial, he said.

The tourist business, said the Premier, had held up remarkably well. Canada had received, as a whole, about $300,000,000 last year from this source, of which British Columbia got about $72,000,000.

There were no short cuts on the road to recovery from depression, either politically or economically, said the Premier. British institutions had stood the test of centuries, and would lead the way out of the present trouble.

"This is no time to feel discouraged. Good times will come. All that is necessary is courage and a little of the spirit which made the British Empire the greatest body of nations in the world to-day," he concluded.

EMPIRE PROBLEMS
Mr. Dickie discussed the problem from the angle of other Dominions. Australia, through a conversion loan, had solved the worst of its difficulties. New Zealand had faced its problem squarely. Great Britain, he said, had the time, but would win through just as surely as she had done in the past, he said.

Mr. Dickie revealed that colleagues of Premier Bennett feared for his health. He was playing the part of a strong character, often working twenty hours a day.

Mr. Twigg predicted changes in international relations. International law and economics as aftermaths of the present situation. He foresaw a better civilization arising out of the great test the world was undergoing.

OFFICERS NAMED
Officers of the ward association were elected yesterday evening. Fred Appleby was chosen again as president. Mrs. J. F. Bates, first vice-president; Mrs. John Howcroft, second vice-president; Mrs. William Dealy, secretary-treasurer, and an executive consisting of Mrs. Street, George Bryson, P. J. White, William Dealy, Mrs. Fred Appleby, Mrs. Arthur Bird, J. F. Bates and Charles Roberts. Charles Roberts and Mrs. Bladen were named delegates to the Central Association.

Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, Premier S. F. Tolmie, C. H. Dickie, M.P., and Mrs. F. Osborne were made honorary officers.

ROYAL OAK
Mrs. W. J. Jones and the Misses Elffe and Beatrice Jones returned on Monday from a vacation on the mainland. Mrs. Frank Carls visited Vancouver last week as the guest of Mrs. Norman Musgrave. She also visited Mrs. Clarke, an ex-missionary, who was Mrs. Carls' first school teacher.
Miss Pearl Kinnaird returned on Monday from a vacation on the mainland.

AMATEUR GOAT JUDGING CLASS WELL CONTESTED

Splendid Nubians, Saanens and Toggenburgs Exhibited; Complete Results

Mrs. S. L. Jones has been declared winner of the amateur goat judging competition, one of the big features of the goat section at the Provincial Exhibition. No better method than this of fostering an intelligent appreciation of the animals can be imagined, and the enthusiasm of the various amateurs in the competition testified to its popularity.

Spirited rivalry also occurred in the children's milking competition, the award for which went to Malcolm Bissenden.

The pure-bred Nubians of W. H. Moyes, the pure-bred Saanens of S. L. Jones and Mrs. L. Blakeney, the grade Saanens of Mrs. Blakeney and the surprisingly good Toggenburgs of W. and K. Burton were all noted by the judges and given the lion's share of the prizes in their respective sections.

SOOKE
Residents of Saanens district have petitioned the Provincial Public Works Department for addition of a footpath to the bridge across the Sooke River, to safeguard children attending the Sooke school. The request followed defeat of a proposal to erect a $3,000 school at Saanens, by well-attended meeting of taxpayers held on Saturday evening in the Sooke Hall with C. A. Helgesen in the chair.

NEW CABINET IS FORMED IN JUGOSLAVIA

Constitutional Government Is Promised After Two Years of King's Dictatorship

Belgrade, Jugoslavia, Sept. 4.—Gen.
Peter Zivkovich, president of the Jugoslavian cabinet, yesterday handed King Alexander his resignation and that of his ministry in conformity with the king's decree, returning the country to constitutional government after two years of dictatorship.

The king immediately gave him a mandate to form a new government and the general reconstituted a cabinet of the same members, who were sworn in forthwith.

LIBERAL-DEMOCRATIC PLAN

Venice, Sept. 4.—Returned to constitutional government by King Alexander's decree, Jugoslavia will continue to bear the name of "The Kingdom of Jugoslavia," discharges from Belgrade said to-day.

The constitution, described as Liberal-Democratic, establishes as the official languages the Serb, the Croat and Slovene. It guarantees liberty to all citizens, privacy of correspondence and inviolability of homes. The banats, or administrative divisions, are to have extensive autonomy under governors nominated by the king.

Jugoslavian emigres here assert the king's action in re-establishing constitutional government was motivated in part by a desire to obtain financial aid from France.

WELCOMED AT END OF RECORD-BREAKING AIR JOURNEY

In one long jump they brought Istanbul, Turkey, within less than fifty hours of New York, and these pictures show the reception that awaited John Polando and Russell Boardman at the end of their record-breaking distance flight. Polando is seen in the upper picture as he emerged from the cockpit of the plane in Istanbul to be welcomed by Joseph Grew, United States Ambassador to Turkey. Lower right, the American fliers—Polando at the
Yeshilkey Aerodrome. It was the distance record of Major Dieudonne Coste of France that they shattered, and Coste, who was in Istanbul at the time, is shown lower left in uniform, as he congratulated Polando on the success of the 5000-mile non-stop flight.

Everything about it is NEW Columaire "8"

A RADICALLY NEW RADIO

In design, in size, in principle and in performance, there has never been a radio like it before.

It abandons the "architectural" styles inherited from the phonograph. It escapes from the limitations of so-called "period designs".
Its characteristics are fundamental.
It is the first receiver created in the form of a distinctively radio musical instrument. It is modern as tomorrow—
smart as the latest Paris gown.

It is created for modern homes, where space is at a premium—yet it is not a "midget" but a full-size receiver.

For the first time, it applies to radio reception a fundamental principle of acoustics (science of sound)—a secret of tone quality known to musical instrument designers for hundreds of years, yet never before adapted to the needs of radio. It is the "Air Column" principle and from it, Columaire "8" derives not only its name and distinctive form, but also a new beauty of tone with the full range of musical harmonics developed to greater perfection than has ever before been possible.

Everything about Columaire "8" is new—radically new. Its introduction by Westinghouse marks an epoch in the history of radio—truly "The most important radio announcement of recent years."

To-day's Grain Markets

WINNIPEG

(By Logan & Bryan)
Winnipeg, Sept. 4.—Wheat.—The wheat market was fairly active during the opening period this morning, when there was some buying by exporters and seaboard houses, but after this demand was satisfied, the market became dull and listless, with a little short covering by locals around mid-session, which caused a small flurry upward. However, prices held within a narrow range, with the upturn rather difficult to hold.

Export sales of Manitoba's overnight wheat were placed at around 500,000 bushels, of which the Pool were credited with 300,000 bushels, the United Kingdom, France, Germany and Belgium said to have bought wheat overnight. Sales in hard winter were reported as small. Offerings were not so liberal to-day as they have been, there being very little selling by Chicago, although there was some hedging pressure at times.

In the local cash market the demand was perhaps a little easier, although still fair for most grades. The news is perhaps becoming a little more constructive generally.

There are increasing indications that Russia has not the quantity of wheat that the Soviet government expected earlier in the season, as considerable damage has taken place in central and northern areas of that country, and yields are said to be disappointing. The Soviet will possibly fill their present contracts, after which shipments are expected to become small, with the total less than last year.

The Australian Government grain inspectors report a reduction of 40 per cent in the wheat acreage in the states of New South Wales and Victoria. Other states of the Commonwealth are expected to show a small reduction in acreage. Argentine reports a poor demand for their surplus wheat, much of which is of poor quality. Winnipeg futures closed 1/2% higher.

Coarse grains—These markets were extremely dull all day with nothing of feature going on. Offerings were quite light. Oats and barley were firm in sympathy with the firmness in wheat.

All oats closed 1/2% to 3/4% higher. Barley 1/2% to 1 1/4% higher and Rye 1/2% to 1/4% lower.

Flax—Dull, steady market, closing unchanged to 1/2% lower.

Liverpool due to 1/4% higher, based on Winnipeg.

Heart of Liane

by MABEL McELLIOTT

Liane flew. She found Olive in consultation with a sandy man in baggy grey clothes. Olive turned to greet her, excused herself. Liane explained quickly, briefly. She was afraid she might be going to cry.

Instantly the young man was all sympathy. He said to the veterinarian, "Look, Miss, I've got something frightfully important to attend to. This can go over until to-morrow. Right, I'll see you then. About the same time."

He walked back to the house with her, talking of tickets, schedules. She was grateful for his matter-of-fact air. It helped her to keep from breaking down. If she let herself go—if she thought of her mother, lying ill in that lonely hospital room, she would not be able to go on.

Was she the same girl who had been worrying, a few hours before, because a mere man had caused her pain? What did all that matter? Lifelessly it seemed now! All that mattered in the wide world was her brave, tired mother, ill in a strange city.

As in a dream Liane packed a bag. She got into her brown tweed dress, put on her old brown felt. What did it matter how she looked?

In the great hall downstairs she saw a tall figure, waiting. It was Van. Obviously he was waiting to see her.

He said he was sorry. Was there anything at all he could do? Lifelessly she said no. Nora came down with her bag. Kelly had brought the car round, she informed them. Was Mr. Clive outside?

There seemed nothing for Van to do but hand her into the car. Clive was driving the roadster. Kelly, red-faced and solemn, put the bag into the rumble seat and touched his cap.

"I said goodbye to your mother," Liane said vaguely. The car moved. She knew, dimly, that Van had touched her hand, but she did not know what might have been profound sympathy. She didn't quite know or care what he had said in parting. All that was left was the car.

Clive drove swiftly and surely. They were soon in the Motor Parkway where speed was the expected thing. "You can get the 12 o'clock," he shouted to her above the roar. "No difficulty at all."

She never knew later how she had got through that dreadful day. She had a confused impression of the big busy station, of a porter who took her things. Of Clive saying swiftly, competently, "I'll park this and find you at the gate. I'll get your ticket. Don't bother about anything at the steps."

She remembered waiting at the steps. Busy people, casual and happy people, milled around her. A family party, a pretty mother and a cool black nurse, guarding the pink-coated baby. How safe and sure they all were! Trouble did not seem to touch any of them.

"I'll come along with you, want me," Clive offered her, as he established her in her chair.

Liane was shaken out of her apathy at this. "Oh, no, no, thank you," she said. "I don't need anyone."

She saw his kind, troubled face in that last moment before the train moved slowly to move. She even raised her hand to salute him.

Liane's eyes filled with tears. People were good, she thought dully. It was only when you were in trouble that you found that out.

The short journey seemed interminable. Clive had wired Elsie the time of her arrival, but there was no one waiting in the dimly station. She gave the cabman the address of the hospital and then sat staring through the window at the unfamiliar streets.

At the information desk a starved young woman with a detached air told her Mrs. Barrett was in 402. No change, she added. The words chilled Liane. Her heart was full of bursting as she rode up in the creaky, antiseptic-smelling elevator. The man looked at her with a faint curiosity. He was accustomed to pallid visitors with terror in their eyes, but this one was so young—so alone.

A strange Elsie waited outside the door of Case's room, an Elsie pale and serious. "Glad you've come, kid," she whispered. "Can't go in right now. The doctor's there."

The throbbing of Liane's heart was something to steady herself.

"Tell me," she began, "just how bad—?" She couldn't go on. Elsie shook her head. "They don't know just when the crisis will come," she said. "To-night, they think. We've been struggling along with it, didn't want to mention it to you. Yesterday morning the doctor said it was pneumonia. He hurried her over here so she'd get the best care. Hope it was the right thing to do." Her bright eyes sought Liane's anxiously.

"Oh, I know you've been doing everything possible," Liane began hoarsely. Both girls fell silent, watching the door. The nurse came out, giving Liane an impersonal glance and hurried down the hall.

As in a trance the watchers followed her movements with their eyes. She returned in a moment with a hypodermic needle on a tray.

"Just a minute, honey," Elsie reassured the trembling Liane. "Dr. Lane'll be out and you can talk to him. Don't go all to pieces now. We'll need you. I'll buck Case up just to see you."

The knob of the door began to turn. Like one searching the face of the omnipotent for a sign of relenting, two girls gazed at the iron-grey man who came in.

"How is she?" gasped Liane. "Not too bad," his tone held a professional cheerfulness, meaningless, like that of a machine. The girl felt he had spoken thus to a dozen anxious watchers.

"May I go in to see her now?" "He'll go in to see her now," Elsie said. "If you'll promise not to disturb her—"

She staunchly promised. She would not allow one tear to flow.

The stiff figure on the bed moved ever so slightly. There was a low moan from the nurse moved swiftly to the patient's side. Alert she stood there, then turned, finger on lip, to sign the watcher with her to silence.

Liane looked up quickly, hopefully, at the movement. But at the nurse's words the girl's pallor deepened. She waited again in her chair, her eyes never leaving the quiet figure under the coverlet. Case was quiet now. Before she had been delicious and had been awful.

"She mustn't die—she won't die—she can't!" This Liane repeated over and over to herself as if it were a magic litany to chain Case's spirit.

"She mustn't!" She won't! Thus the girl had prayed, had hoped, all the long day. She had been at the hospital for three days, now, and the expected crisis failed to arrive. At night she dreaded going to Elsie back to the hotel. She lay, long hours, in the darkness, every nerve straining for the telephone message she felt sure would come. In the dawn she would rise, with shaking fingers dash the icy water into her red-rimmed eyes. Exhausted, she would dress, wait for the hour when she might creep to her mother's side.

It was all terrible, terrible! She had known before what anguish could be.

CHAPTER XV

She searched the faces of the nurses and doctors for a sign. They're monsters, all of them," she thought stonily. Young as she was, untired, she thought their cheerfulness in the face of this certain defeat too horrible. She did not realize they grasped daily with that enemy—Death. And sometimes won.

Poor child, thought the tall nurse, as she moved briskly, capably about. Poor child, she has a lot to learn. Aloud she said in a low voice which Liane resented for its matter-of-factness, "You must go out now and get some lunch. Can't have another patient, you know."

Under this way, Liane's thought of food. Food when her darling mother was so removed from the urgencies and necessities of daily living! Never!

"Oh, God—oh, dear God," she prayed wildly, bitterly, "spare her to me this time, at least. I'll be so good, so awfully, awfully good. What you want of me, I'll do. I've been vain, selfish. I've not given her what she ought to have. Give me another chance to show her that I love her!"

Miss Nesbit perished, gently firm. "Clive said eat now, child. A bowl of soup. Anything."

Liane looked at the sturdy watch on the other's round white wrist. It was ten o'clock. She dragged herself out of the chair.

"I'll fly," she said tonelessly. "Just around the corner."

There was no relief. Even the pavements were unfriendly. The fall day seemed ominous with the hush of unshed tears. She found a little restaurant, one in which the day before she had wept unashamedly into a bitter cup of tea. She did not weep now. Even that was beyond her.

She saw, as one sees flashes in a cinema, pictures of her life and her mother's together. Herself at twelve, in blue serge, being brought to the convent. Her mother's mobile, eager face. Sister Blanche. "She's a dear child, Mrs. Barrett, and we'll take care of her."

That was the year mother had gone on tour with the Shakespearean company. Liane wondered numbly what life would have been like for both of them if Tom Barrett had lived. He had died when she was six. She had vague memories of a tall, brown-haired man who carried her on his shoulders. How she had envied girls who spoke of "my father" at school. She longed for her father now, for someone to keep this faithful vigil with her.

Somewhere Liane swallowed the hot, salty broth, crumbled a cracker and left it untested. Then she fairly ran the short block to the hospital in a fever lest she had stayed too long. Something—anything—might have happened.

She was afraid to open the door. Dread had swept over her again like a searing flame. But Miss Nesbit sat, quiet and relaxed, watching the sufferer, listening to the labored breathing. "Doctor's due," she whispered. Liane nodded. She was counting the seconds.

She took up her place by the bed. In the silence came a sound, low, sibilant, like a sigh. Case was beginning to moan again. "Make them. You can't keep out of her delirium."

Liane bent nearer. "Darling, I'm here," she kept saying over and over. Case said suddenly, clearly, "Lula wouldn't want her to know. Anyhow, she's mine. I've earned her. My little girl."

Then she began to toss again.

The doctor came and went. Long shadows crept over the walls. Liane shrouded, unsmiling, "He says the crisis will come to-night," Miss Nesbit whispered to the night nurse who entered, rustling and fresh, at seven.

The two nurses held a long consultation outside the door as Liane kept watch. Elsie fluttered in for a moment, sympathetic and reassuring, on her way to the theatre.

"We've got to get some sleep, kid," she said anxiously. "You'll cave in." "Make them let me stay to-night!" Liane begged. "Make them. You can't!" Elsie shook her head. "Don't think it can be done, kid. Anyhow there's not certain there will be any change."

But Liane was determined. Miss Nesbit shook her head. "Against the rules," she said firmly.

Liane went to the floor head. The startled woman, listened with cool, blank eyes. In the end she said stiffly, "The room next door happens to be empty. I will make an exception. That is, if you promise to lie down and still nurse calls you."

All her life long Liane Barrett was to remember that night as her Gethsemane. Young as she was, she seemed to touch the very depths of human anguish. There was no one to stand by—not one of her own flesh and blood to hold her hand.

Change has come," the little nurse told Liane calmly, "but don't go in now."

Horoscope

SATURDAY, SEPT. 5, 1931

Adverse planetary aspects appear to dominate today, according to astrology. It is a day for finishing rather than beginning any sort of work.

The morning is especially promising to merchants, who should profit through wise foresight, although they should postpone any ambitious expansion of business.

The day is most unfavorable to women and their public work. It is a time to concentrate on household interests.

Under this way, entertainment of every sort is likely to be less successful than usual. Theaters may suffer temporarily, but the stars smile on amusements.

It is not a lucky day for signing notes or for taking any sort of financial risk. The wise will pay debts instead of incurring them.

Indian welfare is likely to be much discussed at this time, when mistreatment of the natives is possible.

Growth of the universal brotherhood idea will be apparent in many ways. It is foretold, and race prejudices should fade perceptibly.

Palestine continues under a sway more or less threatening and the winter may bring heavy responsibilities to government officials.

The conjunction of the Sun and Venus presages for France a friendly spirit that will extend to other countries.

Little changes will mark the months in New York and Washington, the stars indicate, and social contacts will gain a new significance.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a year of some success, but they should be careful to avoid romance.

Children born on this day probably will be keen of intellect, liberal in their views and able to make the best of their opportunities.

Those who have celebrated it as a birthday include Louis XIV, 1638 King of France, and Cardinal Richelieu, 1585, French prelate and statesman.

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggly's Bouncing Ball

BY HOWARD R. GARIS

Once upon a time, as Uncle Wiggly was hopping past a toy store, he saw in the window a red rubber ball.

"I think that would be a fine ball to buy for Baby Bunty," said the rabbit gentleman to himself, sort of reflecting like and musing. "I'll go in and ask how much it is."

Into the toy store hopped the rabbit gentleman and behind the counter was a cute, little, old cat lady with a lace cap on her head and a string of red coral beads around her neck.

"What is it, please?" mewed the cat lady as Uncle Wiggly opened the door. "May I have the pleasure of showing you something in toy?"

"You've got to get some sleep, kid," she said anxiously. "You'll cave in."

"Make them let me stay to-night!" Liane begged. "Make them. You can't!" Elsie shook her head. "Don't think it can be done, kid. Anyhow there's not certain there will be any change."

But Liane was determined. Miss Nesbit shook her head. "Against the rules," she said firmly.

How would'nt buy Half.... a Radio

Then why be satisfied with one on which cross-talk, interference and overlapping of stations make half the dial useless?

THE dial strips on the right give a fair approximation of the difference in reception between a Philco Superheterodyne and any other set, but to truly appreciate this difference you must hear a Philco—must operate it from one end of the dial to the other—and note how station after station that you could never listen to before, because of interference, comes in as clear as a bell.

Philco gives you the supreme selectivity of the perfected Superheterodyne circuit. Gives you the utter clarity, realism and freedom from distortion of Philco Balanced Units plus the amazing power of screen grid that gives you almost incredible distance. And Philco gives you a wider range of choice—10 beautiful models—including the new Lazyboy.

No matter how much or how little you want to spend, there is a Philco in 7, 9 or 11 tubes that offers you incomparably more for less money than any other set.

Your Philco dealer will gladly demonstrate any set you fancy and arrange convenient terms of purchase.
